HASŁO: A PENNY SAVED IS A PENNY GAINED

BLOG ENTRY

W tym zadaniu należy uzupełnić tekst podanymi wyrazami.

I've always loved Scotland, its wildlife, rebellious history(1) and the accent of course, but until last summer I'd never been(2) there. That was absolutely the most amazing journey(3) of my life and I'd like to share my experience with you.

Before I planned my trip I did a lot of research(4) on the Internet about it. I read about the places I must see, watched a lot of films on Youtube, subscribed(5) to a few blogs and a couple of Youtube channels. When the big day arrived, I was pretty sure I knew most of the things I was supposed to. However, as you might have guessed, I was in for a couple of surprises.

I read everywhere about the unpredictable weather in Scotland, how cold and windy and rainy it can get, even in the middle of the summer(6), so I took a warm jacket, a couple of jumpers, a woolen(7) hat and wellingtons. I had been told not to stay inside and go exploring the countryside even if(8) it rained as I could wait forever for the sunshine. And guess(9) what! It was the hottest summer of the century and I looked like a village idiot wearing my winter stuff among people in shorts and sandals. So yes, the weather in Scotland is unpredictable, but be prepared for all the seasons, not just for winter :)

The language. Having studied English for over ten years, I was pretty sure I'd be able to communicate(10) pretty easily. My English teacher used to say that I sound like a native speaker(11) and my vocabulary is really advanced. Well, I started to doubt it the moment I arrived in(12) Scotland. Very few people understood me, and I had to repeat every sentences two or three times. I, on the other hand, did NOT understand(13) anybody, it was very frustrating. With time I got used to the accent and got much better at working out what people were saying to me but the frustration remained.

Booking in advance(14) is a real must. I thought I could book a hostel two weeks before my stay, but it turned out to be almost impossible. I managed to find some last minute vacancies, but it cost (15) me a lot of stress and more money than I had anticipated.

I read that that best way to get around(16) in Scotland is to hire a car. It was not a problem at first as I'm an experienced driver(17) and I had driven on the left(18) when I was in England two years before, but many of the roads in Scotland, especially in the Highlands, are very narrow(19), with enough space for only one car, that's why you have to be very careful.

That's it for today. More on my Scottish trip tomorrow. See you :)
